FINAL NOTICE OF FEDERAL JURISDICTION AND IRREVOCABLE REMOVAL OF VENUE
PRO NUNC TUNC, IN PERPETUITY, AD INFINITUM
NOVEMBER 18, 2025

To the Booneville District Court and all related state actors, let this declaration serve as the final and irrevocable notice that all legal matters, citations, warrants, docket entries, prosecutions, filings, and proceedings involving the living man, Jonathan Daniel Clements, and any property or conveyance held under ECC-TRUST–JDC–005, have been removed in total from state and municipal jurisdiction and are now vested exclusively under federal venue in Case No. 2:25-cv-02145-TLB.

This court, the Booneville District Court, holds no lawful jurisdiction or authority to compel appearance, issue judgment, compel contract, or undertake any action of prosecution against the Claimant or any ecclesiastical conveyance. The jurisdictional transfer is complete, filed, sealed, and executed, and no state or local action may continue without constituting interference with a federal proceeding, ecclesiastical trespass, and obstruction of justice.

The appearance made on November 20th is not an appearance of submission. It is solely for the purpose of depositing this notice into the Booneville court record so that no local party may claim lack of notice or procedural ambiguity. No further engagement, plea, agreement, or recognition of authority will be given at the local level.

The Booneville District Court is directed to cease all action regarding the Claimant, as jurisdiction has been divested, and all future enforcement attempts will be cataloged as violations subject to prosecution under the federal RICO framework outlined in the above-referenced case. Any attempt to proceed will be entered as evidence of knowing and deliberate obstruction.
